Local Yuletide Programs

Greetings

Merry Christmas

To Our Servicemen:

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year is not simple. We know how far from home you are and how great the dangers you face. Nothing but peace could assure you the kind of a Yuletide season we wish for you. Since this Christmas finds our nation still at war, we can only send you the traditional sentiments and hope that soon you may be able to resume your normal lives in a world at peace. In the meantime may you have the faith and fortitude to endure the ordeals which war imposes on both flesh and spirit.

We want to thank you for the letters we've received from camps in this country, from the South Pacific, India, and England, thanking us for The Record. It has been a pleasure to send it, to know that in this small way we've made you feel the separation from familiar scenes less keenly.

To Our Subscribers:

We greet you every Thursday morning with the week's report of how your community's getting on. This Thursday we'd like to add our wish for a pleasant Christmas season for you. Lots of you have loved ones in the service so it isn't an especially "merry" Christmas. Just the same, the spirit of Christmas is still one of the hopeful signs that civilization is not doomed, that there may yet be "peace on earth, goodwill to men."

Subscribers are just like a family, really. We don't always please you but you stay with us; when it's Thursday we show up. You read us, with varying degrees of approval (or lack of it). But our existences are intermingled for that long. On the strength of such a relationship, an ink and paper tie, we greet you at your own fireside with Yuletide warmth and friendliness.

To Our Advertisers:

Season's greetings, and may your New Year be one less plagued with difficulties! We want to thank you for your continued use of advertising. It denotes your faith in this country's heritage of free enterprise.

We don't know how you can be very "merry" with shortages of supplies and help hounding your business hours, but in spite of those annoyances, Christmas is still a lovely season, so enjoy it. Maybe next year will be better for everyone. There might be peace by the end of 1944. At any rate, there can be intelligent preparation to that end.

Assurance For New Year's Celebrants

New Year's Eve celebrants were assured today that charges for drinks, meals or special food items in night clubs, hotels and other eating establishments will be no higher than were charged last year.

The assurance came from Monsignor Egisto Tozzi, chairman of War Price and Rationing Board No. 83-12-3, who announced that the Office of Price Administration had ruled that such charges must conform to those of last year.

"In the event an operator of an eating and drinking establishment was not open for business after 8 p. m. last New Year's Eve, he must charge prices no higher than those charged by a competitor of the same class or type," Monsignor Tozzi said.

Monsignor Tozzi also urged housewives to take advantage of the "points-for-fats" program inaugurated by the OPA Monday, December 13, whereby one brown point will be given for each half-pound of waste fat turned in by a housewife. He explained that the brown points are in addition to the four cents per pound ceiling price for such fat now paid.

Another announcement by Monsignor Tozzi revealed that, beginning February 27, tokens will be used to supplement the brown and blue food stamps in present ration books.

He said that retailers must secure applications (Form 74923)

Senior Air Raid Wardens Hold Meeting

The air raid wardens' activities during the recent plane crash was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of Daly City Senior Air Raid Wardens, Friday evening, December 17, at the city hall. Chief Air Raid Warden Harry Melicker presided.

Next meeting of the senior wardens will be held, Friday, January 28, at the city hall. All wardens of the city, as well as senior wardens, are urged to attend.

Police Meet 'Baby Chick' Crisis

In the midst of report after report dealing with drunks, tavern brawls, and bitter altercations between husbands and wives which demanded police attention, it is a whimsical experience to hit upon an item which shows that the Daly City Police department has been instrumental in the saving of the lives of several dozen baby chicks. It's a nice thought that while their main business is handling auto thieves, unruly revelers, and surly-tempered married folk, the police still take time to lend a hand in a quiet neighborhood emergency.

On Sunday, a woman phoned local headquarters to say that she had several dozen baby chicks in her basement which should be delivered to the southern end of the city, but that she could not do so because her husband and two small children were ill. She feared the chicks would die. To the rescue went Officer George Hopman.

Other police items for the past few days, of a less winsome nature, include:

Police answered a call at Eighty-seventh avenue and Sullivan street, December 15 at 7:10 p. m. An accident involving the autos of Guido Beroldi, Colma, and Carl Johnson, 103 Village lane, had resulted in property damage only.

On December 18, local police recovered the 1937 Lincoln Zephyr of William G. Dogherra, which had been stolen some time during the preceding night from in front of his residence, 599 Vista Grande avenue. It was found on No. 1 highway, between Skyline and Junipero Serra boulevards.

On Monday, December 20, local police began search for a 1936 Dodge sedan stolen from Mario Pendola at 7379 Mission street.

At 2:40 a. m., December 21, Officers Roland A. Petrocchi and Roy Beecher, while on routine check, spotted two boys tampering with a car parked just over the city limits at 267 Belle avenue. The boys were siphoning gas from a truck for use in a Chevrolet coupe which they admitted stealing at Palo Alto. This was one of three cars which they owned to stealing in the past few weeks. The other cars were taken at San Mateo and San Francisco. Local officers turned the boys over to Inspector Martin Lee of the San Francisco Police department.

Schedule Quarterly Safety Conference

The regular quarterly meeting of the Federation of California Safety Organizations is to be held at the Benjamin Franklin hotel in San Mateo on Sunday, January 9, 1944, with the San Mateo County Traffic Safety commission as host.

There will be morning and afternoon sessions, and a luncheon program with an outstanding speaker. The program will be announced later through the press and in the commission's January 1 bulletin. In the meantime all interested in safety are asked to reserve this second Sunday in January for attending this meeting of safety people from various sections of the State. Reservations for the luncheon may be made at the office of the commission, Court house, Redwood City.

Bill Gfroerer Wounded In Action

Parents Receive Word From War Department

Mr. and Mrs. Al Gfroerer, 139 Vista Grande avenue, received word, Tuesday morning, December 21, that their son, Private First Class William "Bill" Gfroerer had been wounded in action in the South Pacific. The telegram came from the War department at Washington.

Gfroerer, a member of the U. S. Marine Corps, has been overseas for many months now, where the fighting's been thickest. In September, 1942, he was promoted to private first class.

The notice from the War department advised his parents that he was being sent back to the states.

Gfroerer attended Jefferson Union high school and played with the Daly City Band. For a time he was employed at The Daly City Record.

More Than 1,300 Children See Show

"Having wonderful time" certainly seemed to sum up the reaction of each of the 1,300 youngsters who attended Daly City's community Christmas party, Monday, December 20. Held at the Daly City theatre, the event featured a matinee showing of westerns and comedy shorts, a candy treat for each child, and an official appearance by Santa Claus himself.

Arrangements for the party were made by Mrs. Anne Eason and Mrs. Maisie Boyle, of the city recreation committee. The City of Daly City provided candy for the occasion, and John W. Marchbank, owner of The Record, paid for the theatre.

Announce Holiday Hours For Workroom

The Daly City Red Cross Sewing workroom will not be open Friday, December 24, nor Friday, December 31. The center will be in operation, Wednesday, December 29, however.

Unprecedentedly heavy schedule of work demands more volunteers than are now serving, according to Mrs. Ruth Morris, in charge of the surgical dressing division. She asks that local women get behind this important project.

The workroom is open, except during the current holiday period, every Wednesday and Friday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Women with an hour or two or a full day to give will be more than welcome.

"Here is a direct way to help our boys at the front," Mrs. Morris appealed. "We need more volunteers to meet Daly City's quotas from Red Cross headquarters."

Soldavini Aids In Clearing Bay

The Bobbie J. II, 36-foot raised-deck craft, owned by M. John Soldavini, manager of Belli Motor company, was instrumental in helping clear the bay of tons of storm-tossed and water-soaked debris that endangered seaplane traffic and small vessels, following the recent violent wind storms in this area.

In all, more than seventy craft of the Coast Guard auxiliary aided in the project. The craft met at a central rendezvous point about six miles east of Point San Bruno, where a huge Navy barge waited to receive the debris. The Bobbie J. II was piloted by Soldavini, and covered scores of miles in the strange roundup.

Soldavini's boat sped from one craft to another directing the pilots to the barge, which was obscured by haze. The patrol for debris started in the area between Hunters Point and the opposite Alameda county shore and extended down past Mills field to the San Mateo bridge area.

In addition to piloting his own boat for the mission, Soldavini directed the activities of the entire San Rafael Flotilla 14.

The 10:30 a. m. mass will be a high mass followed by the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The children's choir of the parish will sing at the high mass and at the 12:15 p. m. mass, the girls' choir is to provide the musical background.

On Friday, December 24, confessions will be heard at Holy Angels church from 2:30 to 6 p. m. and from 7 to 9:30 p. m.

Plan Christmas Eve Party For Club

There will be a Christmas eve party at the Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, with presents for all the boys, turkey and the Yuletide goodies which go with it, and plenty of entertainment. Santa Claus will put in an appearance to distribute gifts.

Residents were reminded, today, that if they'd like to provide a gift for under the Christmas tree at the club there's still time. Packages may be left, today, December 23, and tomorrow until noon, December 24, at the Daly City Police department, 75 Wellington avenue. The ladies in charge said, early this week, that more gifts were needed to supply the anticipated turnout for the party.

It's not too late, either, to invite a serviceman home for Christmas dinner. Arrangements may be made by calling Mrs. Maisie Boyle, DElaware 4521; Mrs. Anne Eason, RAndolph 5376; Mrs. Margaret Steele, DElaware 9867.

Currently handling hostess duties at the club are members of the Jefferson Union High School P. T. A. Next week, December 26 through January 1, Cypress Circle No. 14, U. A. O. D., will take charge.

Recent donations to the club's funds were made by the Perpetual Help Church society and St. Vincent de Paul, Particular council.

Here's Who'll Be Closed Christmas

Stores, banks, and city offices, with the exception of the police department, will be closed for Christmas day. Even Daly City Draft Board No. 103 will take a well-earned vacation.

The Daly City Servicemen's club, 6201 Mission street, will be open for the convenience of men stationed at camps near here. The Catholic churches will have Christmas Day masses, details of which may be read on this page.

The city water department will close at noon, Friday, December 24; other offices will be open, however.

Schedule Special Midnight Shows

Laughter and beauty and colorful fantasy will be offered in special midnite performances of the dazzling Folies Bergere at Winterland, in San Francisco, on both New Year's Eve and New Year's night.

Late hour celebrants may continue their holiday observances with shows starting at 12:30 a. m. on both days, it was announced.

Gay scenes of pre-war Paris combined with well known vaudeville performers, lilting music, and the talents of 80 of the nation's most gorgeous girls are woven into the production which will have special showings after midnite on both of the holidays.

Master showman Clifford C, Fischer has gathered together an internationally famous galaxy of stars for his all-new two and one half hour show. Famous dancers, comedians, and vaudeville stars appear in a series of brilliant acts which move swiftly and easily from rollicking French comedy to exquisite pageantry.

The Folies' eighty lovely girls were chosen for their beauty, dancing ability, and variety of type, and appear in six dazzling dance sequences staged on the entire floor surface of Winterland. They frolic on a Normandy farm, dance to the lilting strains of a Strauss waltz in the Rose Ballet, perform brilliant precision routines in the Zebra act, and finish in a riot of color in the gay and daring Can Can.

Tickets for the two gala midnight performances of the Folies Bergere are on sale at Winterland, Post and Steiner streets in San Francisco, and at Sherman Clay box offices in San Francisco and Oakland.

Pershing Board Members To Meet

The executive board of General Pershing P. T. A. will meet at the home of Mrs. Sophie Evans, president, 162 Irvington street, Wednesday, December 29, at 1:30 p. m. All officers and chairmen are urged to attend as a life membership is to be voted.

Next regular unit meeting will be held, Tuesday, January 4, 1:30 p. m. at Pershing school. The membership extends its sympathy to Mrs. John Calvin, 81 Partridge lane, whose mother passed away, last week.

On Friday, December 17, the unit gave a highly successful Christmas party for children of Pershing school. There was a Santa Claus and candy, as well as a program of entertainment, which included numbers provided by each room. Miss Winifred McGrath, principal, was in charge of the program, while unit chairmen for the party arrangements were Mrs. Evans and Mrs. M. Borelli. After the party, cake and coffee were served to the mothers.

TIRE QUOTAS

War Price and Rationing Board No. 83-12-3 declared today.

"Every effort is being made to keep the wheels of transportation rolling," Monsignor Tozzi said. "A break-down in truck transportation would mean more than just a further cut in civilian deliveries—it would mean interference with the shipment of vital war materials."

Rationing restrictions have been removed from recapping of tires for commercial vehicles with truck-type camelback, Monsignor Tozzi reported. This action was taken at the request of the Office of Rubber Director to encourage a more effective use of recapping, thus lessening the demand for replacement tires for trucks.

New type supplemental mileage coupons worth five gallons each were issued for the first time, December 1 by the local War Price and Rationing board. No increase in the amount of gasoline is involved, for the new books have fewer coupons. Monsignor Tozzi made it clear that coupons in supplemental mileage rationing books issued prior to December 1 still are worth three gallons, and as these old-type books expire, new ones will be issued.

Monsignor Tozzi explained that the new supplemental coupons result in a 20 mile cut on the monthly average of "B" bookholders. One complete "B" book with 16 coupons, each worth five gallons, will be issued for a three-month period. At 15 miles per gallon this gives 1200 miles for the three-month period or 400 miles per month. To this figure must be added 60 miles representing that part of the "A" book used for occupational driving. This results in a total of 460 miles a month whereas under the old plan the total "B" allotment was 480 miles.

And a further reminder from Monsignor Tozzi: "Don't forget to endorse all gasoline coupons as soon as you get your book. Just write the car license number and the state of registration on the face of coupons."

Plan Junior Red Cross Display

R. L. Crane jr., district superintendent of schools, announces that following the Christmas holidays a display of articles made by children of the Junior Red Cross will be installed at McGraw's pharmacy, 6300 Mission street.

"HIT THE ICE" NOW AT DALY CITY

Loaded and overflowing with new comedy situations, Abbott and Costello's latest Universal funfilm, "Hit The Ice," comes tonight to the screen of the Daly City theatre. The picture, decidedly the funniest in which the two champion comics have appeared, has an all-out action plot and a group of skilled performers. Ginny Simms, outstanding radio star, heads the supporting cast, which includes Patric Knowles, Elyse Knox and Marc Lawrence. A special musical attraction is the appearance of Johnny Long and his orchestra.

Other popular entertainers are Helen Long, Gene Williams, the Four Teens and 50 skating beauties.

Bud and Lou are seen as candid camera photographers. Knowles portrays a doctor romantically inclined toward Miss Knox who appears as a trained nurse. Miss Simms and the Long orchestra are entertainers in a novel resort where much of the story's surprising action takes place.

Other backgrounds for the picture's hilarious plot include a hospital, a swank mountain hideaway and a bank. It is in the latter institution where the candid camera boys secure photographs of an exciting robbery. Possessing negatives which identify the yeggs, the two lads are in dire peril until Costello reverses the situation with a stroke of ingenious heroism. He becomes a human snowball which overwhelms the crooks.

Four attractive songs are presented by Ginny Simms to the accompaniment of the Johnny Long orchestra. The numbers, "I'm Like A Fish Out Of Water," "Happiness Bound," "I'd Like To Set You To Music" and "Slap Polka," were composed by the tunesmith team of Harry Revel and Paul Francis Webster.

30 DAYS' NOTICE ON STAMP 18

The public will be given 30 days' notice, should it become necessary to terminate Shoe Ration Stamp 18. This announcement was made recently by OPA to "kill" scare-buying rumors that the validity period of Stamp 18 might be cancelled with only 24 hours' notice to consumers.

BROWN POINTS FOR WASTE FATS

For every pound of fat a housewife turns in to her meat dealer or other fat salvager, she receives two brown points, beginning December 13. "But most important," Herbert M. Faust, director of WPB's Salvage division said, "within a month the fat will be transformed into war materials and on the way to the fighting fronts." He reminded housewives to save the grease from turkeys, geese, ducks, and chickens, for the manufacture of war products.

Quiet Friday Session At City Traffic Court

Few fines were paid, Friday, December 17, in the almost deserted court of Judge William J. Sweeney. Sennie Henry Racette was found guilty on a drunken driving charge and paid a $50 fine.

Charles Rosenfelt, 287 Staples avenue, San Francisco, paid a $2.50 fine for going through a signal, as did Javier Gonzales, 1969 Geary street, San Francisco.

BROWNIE SCOUTS

Brownie Scouts No. 7 enjoyed their Christmas party, Friday, December 17, at No. 5 firehouse. There was a pretty tree and refreshments and games provided an afternoon of fun.

The group will not meet again until Friday, January 7, 1944. Mrs. P. J. Becker, 824 Templeton avenue, is leader.

District CCPT Holds Meeting

Seventeenth District C. C. P. T. met for its regular executive and president's meeting, last Thursday morning at Burlingame high school with Mrs. Stella Jensen presiding.

James Tormey, head of the O. D. T. Nutrition committee of the county and chairman of the Adult center at San Mateo junior college, gave some interesting facts regarding the work of his committee and its prospects for future service. He said forty tons of vegetables were raised in plots allotted people in the county through the Adult center and 7500 quarts of fruits, vegetables and meat were canned in the cooperative kitchens maintained and supervised by the college.

Mrs. William P. Cox of Alameda, State homemaking chairman, gave an inspiring talk on the importance of the home. She said the whole structure of P. T. A. is concerned with home life. At the present time the homemaker has to be an expert in a great many fields.

Miss Clara Dills, county librarian, has a very interesting display of Christmas books for adults and children and told a story to illustrate the spirit of tolerance so prevalent at Christmas time.

Let's ALL help bridge the Pacific with ships of Victory!

YOUR GOVERNMENT URGES YOU TO CONSERVE

GAS and ELECTRICITY

FOR ESSENTIAL USE

Yes, you can help fill the ships and keep them sailing out the Golden Gate...by practicing rigid wartime economy in your home. Your Government asks you to conserve and save for Victory. That means waste and extravagance must be cut to minimum. Even where there is no rationing and the supply is plentiful and the cost has not risen, use only what you need and no more.

This is true of gas and electricity. Though plentiful and cheap, they must be used wisely to save manpower, transportation, fuel and critical metals. By more conservative use of gas and electricity you prolong the life of your appliances, obtain more efficient operation and help avoid replacement and repair of these esssntials to your comfort, convenience and health.

This company has pledged full support to the government in the national conservation program. We urge our customers to help through voluntary cooperation.

for the tokens at the Retail Grocers association, 525 Market street, San Francisco, or from local offices of the National Cash Register company. Deadline for securing and preparing the forms is December 31. The banks must have these forms from retailers in order to know how many tokens to order for the area. The tokens will be distributed to the retailers about February 22.

Monsignor Tozzi said that two billion tokens had been ordered by the OPA, and that a survey had just been concluded in Olympia, Washington, to determine whether that amount was sufficient to keep the program working smoothly. The tokens, he added, will be about the size of a dime, made of plastic material, and will come in two colors: red and blue.

The local rationing board, which is located at 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, will be closed at 1 p. m. tomorrow, December 24, and will not be open on Christmas day at all.

S. Office of Education. Basic problems to be discussed are availability of marginal groups, legal aspects of utilizing marginal groups, racial problems, non-financial production incentives, sharing information with employees, reducing absenteeism, reducing turnover, combatting letdown due to news trends, revising measurements of manpower efficiency, analyzing current trends.

— EVERY PAY DAY —

"So that peace may prevail for all mankind—"

Christmastide, hallowed season of joy and happiness, this year finds all of us in America striving constantly to hasten the day of Victory. Nevertheless it is fitting that we should pause both to recall our Christmas days of yesteryear and to look forward into the future with profound confidence and hope. We people of Safeway—including those who have taken leave of absence to join the fighting forces—unite in sincerely wishing every one of you a Merry Christmas! May your families be happy and well. May your dinners be hearty. And may the Christmas prayers of all of us be answered, "So that peace may prevail for all mankind . . ."

"Junior Miss" Coming To Geary

With a record behind it of 720 performances in New York, 252 in Chicago and 168 in Boston, and enough in other cities large and small, to bring its total in less than two years up to 1474, Max Gordon's delightful comedy hit, "Junior Miss," will make its appearance on the stage of the Geary theatre, starting Sunday night, December 26. There will be a special popular priced matinee Wednesday, December 29. Regular matinees will be Saturday and Sunday.

This is a companion piece to "My Sister Eileen," it having been written by the men who dramatized the latter, Jerome Chodorov and Joseph Fields, who based their plot on Sally Benson's "Junior Miss" stories in the New Yorker Magazine.

A very young lady being the central character in "Junior Miss," some persons have had the erroneous idea that the comedy is of but passing interest to grown-ups. Nothing could be farther from the truth. "Junior Miss" is far from being mere juvenile farce. In fact, much of the comedy and most of the drama, is provided by the mature characters by reason of the trouble the youngsters get them into, and from which they have difficulty in extricating themselves.

Judy Graves, the girl of the title, played by Hermine Munro, led on by her movie-fed imagination, plunges her father, mother and uncle, her father's employer and his daughter, and nearly all others in the cast, into a sea of discord that threatens for a time to wreck the happiness of all concerned. But, this being a hilarious comedy, it ends well, so that in the end, all's well.

They heard Eugene Block of the Call-Bulletin and arranged for a trip to a newspaper plant, January 8. Those attending from the local troop were Raymond Lagomarsino, Robert Sayko, Jacob Hummel, Edward Smith, Erick Durkins.

Cub Pack No. 141 has several new members: John Allain, Harold Mosman, Robert Gallagher, Paul Hopman, Leroy Paul.

Keep on BACKING the ATTACK with WAR BONDS

CHRISTMAS DAY·A DINING DAY

By BETTY BARCLAY

Christmas calls for fowl with all the fixin's — war or no war. Fortunately, we are still able to live up to this, while millions of unfortunate Europeans are forced to get along on little or no Christmas cheer.

Here are some Christmas recipes that won't dig too deeply into your ration book but will add to this year's Christmas menus:

Morning Sunshine

Juice of 2 lemons
2 tablespoons honey
2 cups orange juice
1 egg white

Shake all ingredients, in order given, in a shaker for 2 minutes. Serve chilled. The kiddies will adore it for a breakfast treat.

Lunch-box Nut Bread

2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons double-acting baking flour
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
1½ cups Grape-Nuts Flakes
½ cup broken walnut meats

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg, milk, and shortening; add to flour mixture, stirring only enough to dampen all flour. Add Flakes and nuts and blend. Bake in greased loaf pan, 7 x 3 x 2½ inches, in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour and 10 minutes, or until done.

Christmas Punch

1 cup evaporated milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
Cinnamon
4 cups freshly made, hot decaffeinated coffee

Chill evaporated milk thoroughly. Then whip rapidly until stiff. Add vanilla. Place in serving cups, filling half full. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Fill cups with decaffeinated coffee. Makes 8 servings. For refreshments after carol singing or tree trimming on Christmas Eve, be sure to serve this punch made of decaffeinated coffee, so that everybody can relax taut nerves over sociable extra cups without worrying over sleeping problems later on. Remember that decaffeinated coffee needs a little longer "perking" to bring out its full, rich coffee flavor.

Toastaroons

6 cups corn flakes
1 can (14 or 15 ounces) sweetened condensed milk

Combine corn flakes and condensed milk, mixing lightly. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet; flatten slightly, shaping edges with spoon. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) 12 to 15 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheet immediately, using knife or spatula. To keep cookies from sticking, hold pan over very low flame for a few seconds. Makes about 40 cookies.

Nut Toastaroons. Use above recipe, reducing corn flakes to 5 cups and adding ¾ cup chopped nut meats.

Spicy Toastaroons. Use above recipe, mixing 1 teaspoon cinnamon or nutmeg or powdered ginger with corn flakes before adding condensed milk.

Fruit Cake Rennet-Custard

1 package lemon rennet powder
1 pint milk, not canned
3 ordinary sized pieces of fruit cake

"Curtain Time" Opens, December 27

Paul Small, co-producer of three previous smash hit revues at the Curran theatre, San Francisco—"Show Time," "Big Time" and "Laugh Time" will now present under his own producing banner, "Curtain Time" beginning Monday, December 27, at the Curran.

"Curtain Time" is the largest and most colorful of the four revues. Chico Marx of the famous Marx Brothers, and Connie Boswell of stage, screen and radio fame are the co-stars of the revue.

Featured with Marx and Boswell are Diosa Costello, the Puerto Rican Tornado; Jayne and Adam DiGatano, outstanding ballroom team from New York's swank spots; Think a Drink Hoffman, the man who has the liquor shortage beat; Gene Sheldon, hilarious comedian and his banjo; the Three Swifts, throwing humor around at a fast clip; Whitney Sisters, Miller Brothers and Lois, originally the Three Millers, but the Army stepped in, hence Lois; and the ever popular Buck and Bubbles.

"Curtain Time" seats are now on sale for all performances. Matinees will be on Wednesdays, Saturdays and two on Sundays, besides the evening showings.

For New Year's Eve, Producer Paul Small will give a gala 11:30 show in addition to the 8:30 curtain.

Yehudi Menuhin Opens 1944 Concert Season

Yehudi Menuhin, whom San Franciscans have watched grow from a child prodigy into a world renowned genius of today, comes back to the town whose name he has made famous with his violin.

He launches the Opera Association's 1944 concert season with an afternoon program on Sunday, January 2, at the War Memorial Opera House. Yehudi has been devoting much of his time between formal concert engagements to giving programs at camps and hospitals of the armed forces and in an extensive Central and South American good will tour.

Everywhere he has been greeted by the greatest of ovations and critics have acclaimed him as one of the greatest of living artists of the violin today. The tour of South America was made at the behest of an enterprising Argentine concert manager who came all the way from Buenos Aires to New York for the purpose of inducing Menuhin to make the long trip south. After the triumphant tour, the impressario wrote to concert managers in the United States: " . . . I have had the honor and privilege of introducing this great master and genius to the music lovers of South America. The tours of Yehudi Menuhin have brought new glory and recognition to this universally beloved musician, new triumphs and record-breaking achievements in capacity attendance, in ovations, the like of which has not been witnessed in any of our metropolitan music centers in a generation . . . North America has had no better and truer Ambassador of Good-Will than the modest, earnest and glorious Yehudi Menuhin, who sang himself deeply into our consciousness. He made all South America realize, by direct voice of sublime music, that North America has also a great soul and spirit to offer to us another bond of friendship . . . "

Tickets for the concert are now on sale at the Opera Box office, Sherman, Clay and company, EXbrook 8585.

Girl Scouts Have Christmas Party

Mrs. Charlotte Kenny, leader, announces that the members will not hold their regular meeting, tomorrow, December 24.

OPA Gives Warning To Meat Markets

Retail meat markets were warned today by the Office of Price Administration not to turn over salvaged household fats to any collectors unless required ration points are received.

OPA officials reminded butchers that rationing boards do not replace the points which they give housewives for turn-ins of waste kitchen fats. Renderers and collectors of used fats are to reimburse the retail butcher with ration points which they receive upon registration with the San Francisco District OPA at 1355 Market street.

AT JEFFERSON UNION HIGH SCHOOL

By Verna Moresco

ABOUT SCHOOL

The senior pictures have arrived. That means it's close to graduation.

On the bulletin board was a display, last week, of the Christmas cards the students had made in art class.

Don Nelson, sergeant-at-arms, has appointed three new members to the committee. They are Helen Dunn, Verna Moresco, and Don Van Kirk.

RED CROSS

Three Jefferson girls will decorate a Christmas tree for disabled sailors in the Naval hospital, next Tuesday. Bianca Ratto, Nancy Sorg, and another girl not chosen yet, will help decorate. The tree ornaments were made by Jeff art students.

The Junior Red Cross would appreciate more sweaters.

AWARDS

Congratulations are being given to the following student stenographers of Jefferson Union high school, who have been awarded Theory Certificates by the Gregg company for having received a grade of 90 or above on the Gregg company's own test: Bernice Crowder, Frances Mjehovich, Irene Morris, Dorothy Nelson, Emma Sambuceti, Alma Simonetti, and Pat Tiffany.

STAMPS AND BONDS

It's going up! The students of Jefferson have made their participation 95 per cent for the month of December, giving them the Treasury flag.

The best purchasers for the month of December were the freshmen.

The results of the service competition are as follows: Air Corps —$90; Marines—$230; Merchant Marine -- $540; Army — $2,140; last but NOT least, Navy—$2,310. The Navy won by a narrow margin of $170.

The outstanding supporters during the bond drive were: Roberta Romer, Eloise Harrison, Eva Claus, Verna Moresco, and Bud Fellows.

The rooms with 100 per cent were: Mary Louise Bergquist, Hilda Bloom, Oscar Busch, Elda Dell Mora, Walter Griffith, Claude Hackley, Adolph Hansen, Elizabeth Jones, Beth Learned, Dorothy Pendergast, Eunice Philbrick, Marjorie Reandeau, Clive Saiz, Dorothy Sanderson, Edna Smith, and Martinus Van Waynen.

Let's not forget the P-38 which costs $75,000! So far the school has collected a total of $34,783.50. We still have far to go so let's not forget to keep the bonds coming. The total for December was $5,-471.60.

MUSIC

The Indians of Rhythm finished a highly successful year with their recent program in assembly dedicated to the bond drive. They played several patriotic numbers highlighted by a medley of the service tunes.

Marie Nunez sang a medley of "White Christmas" and "I'll Be Home For Christmas."

The bands next appearance will be at the senior ball early next year. We all hope they have a successful New Year!

The chorus is now working on music for graduation. The group of chorus members who are in the Municipal chorus are starting to practice for Handel's "Messiah" which will be given some time in February.

SPORTS

Some girls have already started the new year right by passing their beginners' test. Those girls are: Shirley Schwenderlauf, Pat Tiffany, Louise Bush, Frances Crossley, Norma Salmon Bessie Freel, Georgette Gomez, Thelma Greenfield, Carmella Blandini, and Virginia Curry.

Now that soccer season has closed, although the results of the last soccer test haven't been announced, the next sport will be volleyball.

Some girls have gone the group above one better by passing their intermediate swimming test. Those girls are: Augusta Cattaneo, Violet Sharp, and Nancy Sorg. Students are reminded that the pool will be closed from December 17 until February 28.

News From District Grammar Schools

AT CROCKER

The pupils of Room 2 were shown lantern slides last week entitled, "Life in the Pacific States." They learned about the industries carried on in these states and the many products yielded.

The students of Room 3 celebrated Christmas with a class party. Gifts were exchanged and Christmas carols were sung. The room has been decorated in cheerful Christmas colors.

Robert Lowry, Room 4, is taking a trip to Paradise, California, this week. He and his father will stay there for the Christmas holidays.

Room 6 is happy to report that in the past month the class was 100 per cent in the purchase of War stamps.

AT WOODROW

The boys and girls of the Woodrow Wilson student body presented a program celebrating the anniversary of the one hundred fifty-second birthday of the historic document—the Bill of Rights.

Included in the program was a dramatic reading of the Bill of Rights.

Much emphasis during the entire program was placed on the importance of the survival of the first ten amendments to the Constitution.

The National anthem by the boys and girls Glee club concluded the program.

Room 9

Room 9 has been preparing for the Christmas season. They brought a lovely fir tree and decorated it with strings of popcorn and cranberries.

Room 4

John Shelby is the new pupil enrolled in the low eighth grade. John comes from Arkansas.

Room 12

Room 12 enjoyed a very interesting musical Christmas lesson, last week, when they listened to the Standard's school broadcast of selections from the Nutcracker suite.

Room 15

Room 15 welcomes Rudy Romero who comes from Kansas City, Missouri.

We are happy to see Beverly Keagle and Ann Allen back after long absences due to illness.

Room 8

The high sixth and low seventh grade was very sorry to see Jo Ann Gross leave the seventh grade. She is going to school in San Ysidro in the southern part of the state. She hopes to be back at Woodrow Wilson in April.

Room 14

The children of Room 14 welcomed Jerry Shelby, a new student from Arkansas.

AT JEFFERSON

In line with the other schools of the nation, Jefferson elementary school and particularly the eighth grade, had special exercises throughout the week to commemorate the one hundred fifty-second anniversary of the ratification of the Bill of Rights. Both seventh and eighth grades had a copy of the famous Bill of Rights and a reproduction of Howard Chandler Christy's inspiring picture "Where Freedom was Born" on their bulletin boards, to visualize and emphasize this historical event. The original picture, now in the rotunda of the National Capitol in Washington, shows the dramatic signing of the document that became the Constitution of the United States.

On Thursday morning, December 15, the actual birthday of the Ratification, the children heard the Standard school of the air station broadcast a special discussion of the Bill of Rights.

Anyone visiting the classrooms, last week, could not fail to be exhilarated by the various manifestations of the Christmas spirit. Almost all the rooms were decorated with Christmas trees. The kindergarten, first and second grades were gay with their usual Christmas decorations. Toys and festive scenes were arranged under the Christmas trees. The third and fourth grades expressed a delightful optimism, by having for their central theme in decorations and pictures a sweet smiling, benevolent Santa Claus who looked as if he had never heard of war, and wouldn't know the meaning of it, if he did.

The fifth graders showed an individuality all their own, by doing a little creative Christmas verse writing, and using those verses on Christmas cards designed by them in their art period. They also arranged an attractive Christmas gift box to contain exchange presents for the class. As a fitting background for this gift box, they designed a pleasing mural with symbolic motifs.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grades seemed to regard their room decorations as only a background to the spirit of Christmas, which they are beginning to appreciate. Most of the children are desirous of sharing their gifts and happiness with others.
